This Handbook will serve as a guide to the Terms and Conditions of Employment, benefits and other related matters pertaining to the service of employees of NAT IT Services Private Limited. The company reserves the right to amend, delete or annex any terms and conditions of service as and when necessary. The Board of Directors will approve all changes to the terms and conditions of service. These terms and conditions will, where applicable, be subjected to the provisions of any relevant Government legislation and its amendments. The content of this book is to be kept strictly confidential and is intended to be used as reference for the company and the staff. Any doubt or query concerning the content of this handbook should be forwarded to the Human Resource Department

WELCOME TO NAT IT SERVICES

The Employee Handbook has been developed as a general guide to provide information on key policies, benefit programs and other information that you need to know. The information/Policies/benefits described herein may undergo changes from time to time. All such changes will be communicated to you. The content of this book is to be kept strictly confidential and is intended to be used as reference for the company and the staff. Any doubt or query concerning the content of this handbook should be forwarded to the Human Resource Department.

Workday and working hours:

We work on a 5-day schedule, Monday to Friday except for Holidays. The Company does not provide any breaks for Employees during office hours except for lunch/dinner break and minimum working hours 9 hours per day including breaks. Employees should be prepared to work on any shift, as may be warranted by the Company's or Client's work requirements. Depending on organizational requirement or project contingencies your working hours' / work days may be modified/ altered from time to time. Employee minimum working hours are nine hours per day, including lunch/dinner break. Each NAT IT employee is responsible for maintaining a good attendance record. You are expected to report to work on time

Employment, Policies, Rules and Practices:

Attendance: It is mandatory for all employees to punch/Sign In into the biometric machine and Employee Self Service Portal as soon as enter the office premises, else their attendance for the day will not be recorded and hence the individual will be marked absent for the day.

All leaves must be applied for in advance and an approval must be obtained from the Team Leader or reporting person, however, it is recognized that certain exigencies may not allow this, in all such cases it is expected that the employee would within 24hours of returning to work completing the required formalities.

Disciplinary actions may be initiated against the employees who have been reporting in late to work on a frequent basis. If an employee reports 1 hour late or early logout more than 3 times during a month, he/she considered to be absent for a day and one-day salary will be deducted or take any disciplinary action by the Management. Salary will be processed strictly based on attendance. If proper attendance is not recorded or absences are not informed to the HR department, salary will be kept on hold until the complete attendance details are received from the employee. Please note that the HR department will not send emails or messages to remind employees about their attendance.

Attendance Regularization: If the Employee Portal shows an employee as absent due to technical issues, internet/biometric errors, or marks them as half-day absent for late login (5–10 minutes) or early logout, employees may submit an attendance regularization request through the Employee Portal. The reporting manager will then review the request and approve or reject it based on actual records.

Note: All regularizations must be submitted within 5 days of the respective date; beyond this period you cannot apply in the portal.

Dress Code: Employees are expected to maintain appropriate standards of dress and behavior, not allowed sandals, shorts, half pants all business days. The employee fails to wear formal wear on mentioned days may lead to disciplinary action

Telephone Use: The Company's telecommunication facilities are intended for the use of serving the Company, customers and in conducting the Company's business. Personal usage during business hours is discouraged except for extreme emergencies. All personal telephone calls should be kept brief to avoid congestion on the telephone line. To respect the rights of all Employees and avoid miscommunication at the office, Employees must inform family members and friends to limit personal telephone calls during working hours. If an Employee is found to be deviating from this policy, he/she will be subject

Power/Water Saving: It is the responsibility of each employee to save Power and Water. All lights and ACs will be switched off when not in use. Prior to leaving their workplace, each individual should ensure that all switches are put off. Though adequate water will be provided to the employees, it is expected that employees do not waste the water and whenever any leakage of water is found the same will be reported Admin Department immediately.

Paydays: All Employees shall be paid monthly on a scheduled payday, usually on the last working day of the month. In the event that a regularly scheduled payday falls on a weekend or holiday, Employees shall receive pay on the next day of operation. The Company pays Employees by way of a direct credit into the Employee's bank accounts with ICICI Bank. The salary is credited in respective Employees accounts at ICICI Bank after all statutory deductions, instalments towards loans and advances, for new joiner's salary will be given after the 6th in cheque mode for the 2 payroll months. New Employee who join after 15th their salary will be credited in next Payroll month but not credited in same Payroll.

Public Holidays: Employees can view Holiday calendar in Employee portal, the same will be mailed to all employees on or before 31 December every year. If any changes in the calendar will be communicated to all employees or updated in Employee portal.

Work from Home: Our company not allowed to work from home except in emergencies, if required to work from home employee should get the approval from the Management otherwise it will be treated as absent or Loss of Pay Grievances: An Employee shall convey grievances to the Management only in writing. The Management shall respond, in writing and within a reasonable time, as to whether the grievances would be given due consideration or otherwise. The Management may opt to implement corrective measures immediately or at their discretion, establish a Board of Inquiry to review and consider the grievances. The Board of Inquiry shall recommend to Management the corrective measures to be undertaken.

Harassment, including Sexual Harassment: The Company is committed to providing a work environment that is free of discrimination and unlawful harassment. Actions, words, jokes, or comments based on an individual's sex, race, ethnicity, age, religion, or any other legally protected characteristic will not be tolerated. If an Employee believes that he/she have been the victim of harassment, or know of another Employee who has, report it immediately. Employees can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal. Any Superior who becomes aware of possible harassment should promptly advise Management or the Personnel Department Representative who will handle the matter in a timely and confidential manner.

Group Medical, Accidental and Term Life Insurances: The Employee and his Family (Spouse & upto 2children) will be covered Medical Insurance. There will also be a health card given to each staff member by the insurance company, through which he/she can avail services in specified hospitals. Employees are not eligible for Medical Insurance if they covered in ESI. Note: If Employee wants to add their Spouse or Kid in the event of newly married or given birth to new child then they should inform to the HR Department within 15 days otherwise they may not add to Group Medical Insurance until the renewal. 12. Users are obligated to ensure the safeguarding of customer information which they are exposed to while sharing of information via the collaboration tool.

13. Users must be aware of any official information that may be inadvertently captured via videoconferencing tools, such as in the background of a videoconference call.

This policy is subject to change without notice.

Collaboration is a critical part of our work and organizational philosophy. Please prevent unauthorized recordings and help protect loss of sensitive company and client information.

Please reach out to your reporting manager for any clarifications.

Important exception: consistent with Government law, you may use the Company's electronic systems in order to discuss with other employees as per the terms and conditions of your and your coworkers' employment. However, any such discussions should take place during non-duty times and should not interfere with your or your coworkers' assigned duties. You must comply with a coworker's stated request to be left out of such discussions.

Unless specifically granted in this policy, any non-business use of the Company's electronic systems is expressly forbidden. Deleting/copying of Company's data is against the company policy, if we found any such type of activity will take legal action against that employee.

If you violate these policies, you could be subject to disciplinary action and/or legal action, up to and including dismissal.

Ownership and Access of Electronic Mail, Internet Access, and Computer Files; No Expectation of Privacy: The Company owns the rights to all data and files in any computer, network, or other information system used in the Company and to all data and files sent or received using any company system or using the Company's access to any computer network, to the extent that such rights are not superseded by applicable laws relating to intellectual property. The Company also reserves the right to monitor electronic mail messages (including personal/private/instant messaging systems) and their content, as well as any and all use by employees of the Internet and of computer equipment used to create, view, or access e-mail and Internet content. Employees must be aware that the electronic mail messages sent and received using Company equipment or Company-provided Internet access, including web-based messaging systems used with such systems or access, are not private and are subject to viewing, downloading, inspection, release, and archiving by Company officials at all times. The Company has the right to inspect any and all files stored in private areas of the network or on individual computers or storage media in order to assure compliance with Company policies and Government laws. No employee may access another employee's computer, computer files, or electronic mail messages without prior authorization from either the employee or an appropriate Company official.

The Company uses software in its electronic information systems that allows monitoring by authorized personnel and that creates and stores copies of any messages, files, or other information that is entered into, received by, sent, or viewed on such systems. There is no expectation of privacy in any information or activity conducted, sent, performed, or viewed on or with Company equipment or Internet access. Accordingly, employees should assume that whatever they do, type, enter, send, receive, and view on Company electronic information systems is electronically stored and subject to inspection, monitoring, evaluation, and Company use at any time. Further, employees who use Company systems and Internet access to send or receive files or other data that would otherwise be subject to any kind of confidentiality or disclosure privilege thereby waive whatever right they may have to assert such confidentiality or privilege from disclosure. Employees who wish to maintain their right to confidentiality or a disclosure privilege must send or receive such information using some means other than Company systems or the company-provided Internet access.

The Company has licensed the use of certain commercial software application programs for business purposes. Third parties retain the ownership and distribution rights to such software. No employee may create, use, or distribute copies of such software that are not in compliance with the license agreements for the software. Violation of this policy can lead to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

Confidentiality of Electronic Mail : As noted above, electronic mail is subject at all times to monitoring, and the release of specific information is subject to applicable government laws and Company rules, policies, and procedures on confidentiality. Existing rules, policies, and procedures governing the sharing of confidential information also apply to the sharing of information via commercial software. Since there is the possibility that any message could be shared with or without your permission or knowledge, the best rule to follow in the use of electronic mail for non-work-related information is to decide if you would post the information on the office bulletin board with your signature.

It is a violation of Company policy for any employee, including system administrators and managers, to access electronic mail and computer systems files to satisfy curiosity about the affairs of others, unless such access is directly related to that employee's job duties. Employees found to have engaged in such activities will be subject to disciplinary action.

Electronic Mail Tampering : Electronic mail messages received should not be altered without the sender's permission; nor should electronic mail be altered and forwarded to another user and/or unauthorized attachments be placed on another's electronic mail message.

Policy Statement for Internet/Intranet Browser(s) : The Internet is to be used to further the Company's mission, to provide effective service of the highest quality to the Company's customers and staff, and to support other direct job-related purposes. Managers should work with employees to determine the appropriateness of using the Internet for professional activities and career development. The various modes of Internet/Intranet access are Company resources and are provided as business tools to employees who may use them for research, professional development, and work-related communications. Limited personal use of Internet resources is a special exception to the general prohibition against the personal use of computer equipment and software.

Employees are individually liable for any and all damages incurred as a result of violating company security policy, copyright, and licensing agreements.

All Company policies and procedures apply to employees' conduct on the Internet, especially, but not exclusively, relating to: intellectual property, confidentiality, company information dissemination, standards of conduct, misuse of company resources, anti-harassment, and information and data security.

Personal Electronic Equipment : The Company prohibits the use in the workplace of any type of camera phone, cell phone camera, digital camera, video camera, or other form of recording device to record the image or other personal information of another person, if such use would constitute a violation of a civil or criminal statute that protects the person's right to be free from harassment or from invasion of the person's right to privacy. Employees may take pictures and make recordings during non-working time in a way that does not violate such civil or criminal statutes. The Company reserves the right to report any illegal use of such devices to appropriate law enforcement authorities.

Due to the significant risk of harm to the company's electronic resources, or loss of data, from any unauthorized access that causes data loss or disruption, employees should not bring personal computers or data storage devices (such as floppy disks, CDs/DVDs, external hard drives, USB / flash drives, "smart" phones, iPods/iPads/iTouch or similar devices, laptops or other mobile computing devices, or other data storage media) to the workplace and connect them to Company electronic systems unless expressly permitted to do so by the Company. To minimize the risk of unauthorized copying of confidential company business records and proprietary information that is not available to the general public, any employee connecting a personal computing device, data storage device, or image-recording device to Company networks or information systems thereby gives permission to the Company to inspect the personal computer, data storage device, or image-recording device at any time with personnel and/or electronic resources of the Company's choosing and to analyze any files, other data, or data storage devices or media that may be within or connectable to the data-storage device in question in order to ensure that confidential company business records and proprietary information have not been taken without authorization. Employees who do not wish such inspections to be done on their personal computers, data storage devices, or imaging devices should not connect them to Company computers or networks.

Violation of this policy, or failure to permit an inspection of any device under the circumstances covered by this policy, shall result in disciplinary action, up to and possibly including immediate termination of employment, depending upon the severity and repeat nature of the offense. In addition, the employee may face both civil and criminal liability from the Company, from law enforcement officials, or from individuals whose rights are harmed by the violation.

Loss Of Pay (LOP)

1. LOP can be applied by an employee when no other leave is available.
2. During the period of LOP, the employee is not entitled to any pay or allowance.

3. If the employee fails to report to duty on the specified date, after the sanctioned LOP, it is deemed that the employee has abandoned his service with the company on his own accord.
4. Intervening Weeks Offs / National / Festival / Declared holidays will be counted as LOP.
5. If an employee avails leave (LOP) continuously for 3 days in a week, the following Saturday and Sunday will be treated as LOP.

Compensatory Off

1. If an employee is required to work on any important assignment on a National / Festival / Declared / weekly off day, he is eligible for Compensatory off on any other working day.
2. Official approval is required from the department head / management to work on such National / Festival / Declared / weekly off days. No compensatory offs will be entertained when worked on these days without proper approval.
3. The compensatory off has to be availed within a period of three months from the date worked.
4. Compensatory off when not availed within the stipulated time period will lapse.
5. Only two days of compensatory offs can be combined and availed at a stretch.

OPTIONAL/RESTRICTED HOLIDAYS

If any Employee wants to avail Optional or Restricted Holiday, employee should be getting the approval from their reporting Manager at least 1 day before through ESS Portal. ESS Portal will not allow you to apply Optional or Restricted Holiday on the same day or later. If an Employee availed Optional or Restricted Holiday without prior approval it will be considered as "Loss of Pay"

LEAVE SETTLEMENT DURING RESIGNATION / RETIREMENT / TERMINATION:

If an employee to be relieved has availed number of EL/SL against the number of months he has worked, then the excess EL/SL will be deducted during his final settlement.

LEAVE ON PROBATION/RESIGNATION/TERMINATION

No Leave will be approved during Probation period/Notice period/Termination period. No leaves will be added in the Probation period.

PROCEDURE FOR APPLYING LEAVE

The available leave balance is to be checked by the employee and the leave to be applied by the Employee portal. The employee must submit the application to their department head for approval and send a copy to HR at least 3 working days prior. The departmental head is authorized to either grant or disapprove the leave on valid grounds.

Note: An employee cannot apply for leave in the portal after 5 days from the date of taking the leave. All employees must apply for leave within 5 days

CANCELLATION OF LEAVE

The department head can also cancel the once sanctioned leave on the situational / need basis. If an employee proceeds to avail the cancelled leave, then those days will be treated as absence from duty and the rules pertaining to absence from duty will be applied.

EXTENSION OF LEAVE

As it is necessary to get prior approval to leave so it is also for extension of leave. The employee has to apply to his/her department head for extension of leave well in advance and get it sanctioned to avail them. In case an employee overstays, the unsanctioned leave availed will be treated as absence from duty, if there is no any information to HOD.

ABSENCE FROM DUTY

1. When an employee takes off from duty without prior leave approval or proper intimation under certain unavoidable circumstances, then those days/days will be treated as absence from duty.
2. The days of absence will be treated under Loss of Pay.

3. The employee has to report to his / her department head on rejoining duty from absence and provide valid reasons for absence in writing before taking up work again.
4. If an employee has been absent from duty continuously for more than 2 days, an official correspondence from the HR department will be sent to him asking to report to duty and to provide explanation for his absence. Based on the inquiry any action deemed fit will/would be taken by the management.

(OR) Though there is no correspondence from HR If an employee is absent from duty continuously 07 working days, it would be assumed that the employee has withdrawn his/her service from the company on his own accord and recorded accordingly or company can terminate such employee with/without notice.

Note: - The management reserves all right to modify, withdraw any part or complete policy at any time with or without any prior notice.
